Bacon and egg bap
at Fibber Magee's

When you go to a place that has cottage pie, chips and baked beans on the menu, you know you're getting hearty fare. And where better to start than brekkie? Sometimes you just need a good old bacon and egg bap to get you through the morning and Fibbers, a regular weekend pit stop for team Time Out Dubai, offers a mix and match sarnie, so you could have one or both of those items. And it's as good value as it is tasty.

From Dhs23. Served daily 8am-11am (with a 20 percent discount), 11am-1pm (full price).
Sheikh Zayed Road (04 332 2400).

Bacon sandwich
at The Irish Village

What better to begin your day than with one of the most famous breakfasts in Dubai? You can't go wrong with a classic bacon sandwich, and The Irish Village does it better than anyone. Doorstop bread and crispy bacon. Plus, you can add cheese or an egg for an extra Dhs8 to round it all off nicely. Now the only decision you have to make is red sauce, brown sauce or no sauce at all...

Dhs42. Served daily 11.30am-6pm. Garhoud (04 239 5000).

Breakfast of Champions at Reform Social & Grill

What it says on the tin. You'll need a champion appetite for this one. Ideal for days when you just need some good, British comfort food, this monster weekend platter is made up of two sausages, dry cured bacon, grilled tomato, buttered onion mushrooms, Heinz baked beans, black pudding, poached, fried or scrambled eggs, fried bread in dripping, a buttered flour bap, tea or coffee and an orange juice. And if you can manage all that, you're a winner in our eyes.

Dhs95. Served Fri-Sat 8am-11.30am.
The Lakes, Emirates Living (04 545 2638).

Golfers' brunch at Bar & Restaurant 261

A golf course designed by South African former world number one Ernie Els, this is a top place for a game as well as a sportsman's breakfast. It's not compulsory to have played a round at the course before tackling this mammoth meal, although you'll have earned the calories by then, so it's probably worth it. A carnivore's dream, it features turkey bacon, beef sausage and steak, as well as over-easy eggs and baked beans.

Dhs76. Served daily 6am-3pm. The Els Club, Dubai Sports City (04 425 1000).
